Presbyterian Kirk in the Pines newsletter

Volume XXIV, Issue 2, February, 2010

The Pastor's Corner

Lent begins with Ash Wednesday — February 17 this year. It derives its name from the Hebrew scriptures as those who repented put on “sackcloth and ashes” as symbols of repentance.

With Christians from all over the world, we will also begin our Lenten journey with worship and the imposition of ashes as well. Pastor Don Trent and I will be marking those who come forward with the ashes from last year's palm fronds. In the sign of the cross, these ashes remind us our mortality and dependence upon God.

We will also continue our Kirk tradition of worship and lunch together. Worship services are scheduled for 11 a.m. each Wednesday, followed by our traditional soup lunches at 11:30. Several of the Kirk's retired pastors, as well as one CLP, will be leading worship each week.

Rev. Don Trent will lead Feb 24; Rev Dave Nottrott on March 3; Rev. Vic Brown on March 10; CLP Sylvia Tate on March 17 and Rev. Heinrich Eiler on March 24.

As always, you are encouraged to bring guests and are welcome to attend all or part of the program.

Lent is not the most exciting time of year for most of us. It is, however, a season we need — a season for reflection, repentance and focusing on the cross. Author and poet Ann Weems put it this way:

*Those of us who walk along this road do so reluctantly.
Lent is not our favorite time of year.*

We'd rather be more active — planning and scurrying around.

All this is too contemplative to suit us.

Besides we don't know what to do with piousness and prayer.

Perhaps we're afraid to have time to think, for thoughts come unbidden.

Perhaps we're afraid to face our future knowing our past.

Give us the courage, O God, to hear your word and to read our living into it.

Give us the trust to know we're forgiven, and give us the faith to take up our lives and walk.

Do make plans to join us as we seek to deepen our faith.

Peace,
Bill Bailey

Committees — Committees are an important part of the church. They provide members a chance to become involved with the many church activities. Each member should look within themselves and pray to see where they can best do God's work. Review the committee description in the Church Policy and Organization Manual. December is a special giving time for members of the Kirk – As a result of the giving nature of the congregation, several families and children had a happier Christmas. The Presbyterian Women Circles provided a full Christmas dinner along with clothing and gifts for six families. A total of 103 gifts were delivered to children in Vera Lloyd Children's Home, Glenhaven Youth Ranch and to Head Start children in Mountain Pine and North Garland County programs.

Church closes on property – On Jan. 20, 2010, the church closed on the adjoining property. It was paid totally with money given to the special fund for land purchase. This land will open opportunities in the future.

Building and General Fund:

General Fund—for the month of December, the general fund expenditures exceeded receipts by $20,280. For the year the expenditures exceeded receipts by $2,995.

Building Fund – In December the building fund receipts exceeded the expenditures by $3,115. For the year the receipts exceeded the expenditures by $5,519.

Deaths within the church family: Millie Smart, Dec. 5, 2009 and Jody Creighton, Dec. 28, 2009.

Our prayers are for the families of these members.

— Jerral Johnson
 Clerk of Session

Haiti Disaster Relief

Checks for donations should be made out to Presbyterian Kirk in the Pines and marked "Haiti Disaster Relief." Donations will be posted to member's contribution for 2010.

These will be sent to the Presbytery of Arkansas and the Kirk will receive credit for them as part of our mission giving. All money will be included on our monthly report to Presbytery.

Please remember the thousands of suffering Haitian people in your daily prayers.

Kirk members buy land

Thanks to many generous members of Presbyterian Kirk in the Pines, approximately 10 acres adjoining the church property has been purchased from Cooper Properties, Inc.

Negotiations began last spring to buy property west of the church between Carmona and Asturias Drives, and adjoining the parking lot on Asturias and Palma Drives on the east.

A survey of the properties was completed in December. The sale closed on Jan. 20.

This additional acreage, which Cooper had designated for commercial development, will allow future generations to expand the church facilities. It will also protect the Kirk from other construction on either side of its present property.

Since Kirk members donated all the money for the purchase no funds were used from the church's operating budget.

Finance Committee update

Living within our means

First we have good news.

The Kirk has no debt and we have money in the bank. The last few years we have made (and paid for) several improvements to our aging facilities. These include a new parking lot and new heat pumps.

As Paul Harvey used to say, "Now for the rest of the story."

Being part of a village populated by aging retirees, the Kirk has seen its share of deaths and people moving away to be with families. The number of family units decreased from 334 in December 2008 to 309 in December of 2009.

This impacted 2010 pledging. The general fund received $37,741 less than last year, and the building fund had a $5,620 shortfall.

Because of this drop in estimated income the Finance Committee constructed a 2010 budget which recommended nominal cuts in the following areas: Mission, Worship, Congregational Care, Membership, Stewardship, Administration and Building Fund.

We believe these reductions will help us live within our means and won't severely impact the Kirk's many worthwhile programs. In fact, in 2010 the Mission committee is receiving a greater percent-

Lenten worship services

Lent, a 40-day season of preparation for Easter, begins on Ash Wednesday, Feb. 17. Observation of Ash Wednesday traditionally includes a time for scripture, meditation and prayer.

Those who wish may be marked by the ashes from the burning of the palms used in last year's Palm Sunday service.

Worship services will be at 11 a.m. the six Wednesdays of Lent. Leading the services will be:
 Feb. 17 — Rev. Bill Bailey and Rev. Don Trent
 Feb. 24 — Rev. Don Trent
 Mar. 3 — Rev. Dave Nottrott
 Mar. 10 — Rev. Vic Brown
 Mar. 17 — CLP Sylvia Tate
 Mar. 24 — Rev. Heinrich Eiler

The Kirk invites all who worship to have lunch each week at 11:30 in Hoffius Hall following these services. Homemade soups and breads provided by the congregation will be served. All in the community are welcome.

age of anticipated income than it did in 2009 — 22.3 percent this year compared to 22.2 percent last year.

On Jan. 12 Session approved the 2010 budget as presented by Finance.

I appreciate the work of my committee, Session, financial secretary Beverly Schaumburg and Gary Rector, treasurer.

A special thanks goes to our congregation. Sixty-eight family units increased their pledges to the general fund, and 20 increased their pledges to the building fund.

The 2010 budget is posted in Hoffius Hall. Please contact Beverly or me if you would like a copy.

Kirk Midwinter Lectures: “Grace on the Silver Screen”

Dr. Edward McNulty, renowned Presbyterian minister, author and teacher, will lead the Kirk’s annual Midwinter Lecture Series on Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 10-11. His topic, “Grace on the Silver Screen,” will explore Christian themes of grace, forgiveness and reconciliation as portrayed in secular films.

Ed McNulty

Morning lectures will be from 9 to 11:30, followed by lunch “on your own” with afternoon sessions from 1 to 3. Participants will meet in Hoffius Hall. The public is cordially invited.

Pastor Bill Bailey has used McNulty’s book, FAITH and FILM: a Guidebook for Leaders as a resource for discussions of selected movies during monthly Faith and Film classes at the church.

A native of Indiana, McNulty graduated from Butler University in 1958 and McCormick Theological Seminary in 1963. He earned his Doctor of Ministry degree at United Theological Seminary, Dayton, Ohio, in 1992, his thesis entitled “From the Catacombs to the Silver Screen: the Changing Images of Christ.”

In preparation, McNulty spent a month in Europe studying examples of Christian art in Paris, Milan, Florence, Rome, Assisi, Ravenna, Venice, Geneva

Claire Rhodes elected moderator of General Council

Kirk member, Claire Rhodes of Hot Springs and moderator of Presbytery during 2009, was elected as moderator of General Council for 2010.

Rhodes serves with her husband Kenneth as commissioned lay pastors at West End Presbyterian, Arkadelphia.

General Council, composed of a representative elected from each of the Presbytery’s nine geographic clusters, six at-large members elected by the presbytery, plus seven ex-officio, non-voting members, will meet four times this year.

In 1990 McNulty founded the journal Visual Parables to help educators and pastors find and use good films in their work. For six years he presented film seminars related to the theme of the Presbyterian Peacemaking Conference. He taught at elder hostels, seminaries, colleges, churches, camps and numerous conferences.

He has also written a series of film studies for the new on-line curriculum, The Thoughtful Christian, produced by Presbyterian Church (USA).

Want to be an evANGEList ! Join “Project Welcome”

The Kirk is a very friendly and welcoming church. We can be proud of that fact.

However, we can only demonstrate that welcoming feeling to guests who come through our doors. As we seek to maintain our membership level, or better yet, grow, we must be more pro-active in reaching out to the community and invite people to join us in worship.

The Communications Committee has done a very good job in keeping our name in front of the community through radio spots and placing articles in the Village Voice covering the many activities available at the Kirk. They also maintain an excellent website that is a great “window” into the Kirk and its activities.

The Evangelism Committee, working with the Communications Committee, has joined the Chamber of Commerce where we are present on the Chamber website and have our brochures at the Chamber office. We also have our brochure at the POA “New Member Breakfast.”

The “Gardening from Alpha to Omega” program under the direction of Jerral Johnson, and the Saturday evening worship service are also programs designed to introduce people to the Kirk.

All that being said, how do we get more people to join us in worship? The Evangelism Committee is working on what we are calling “Project Welcome.”

Using the Cooper map, we have divided the Village into seven areas. We would like to have a team of people living in each of these areas to serve as observers and greeters.

Their responsibility would be to watch for families moving into the area and to then make a front porch visit to welcome the people to the Village, provide them with a Kirk brochure and offer them a plate of cookies.

The team would also be asked to make a personal welcome call on any guests that may have attended worship with us the previous Sunday.

This is your chance to be an evANGEList.

If you feel that you would like to be involved in this program to help welcome more people into the warmth and compassion of the Kirk family, call Dennis Zymboly at 922-9340 or email dennis@zymboly.com.

Gardening ... From Alpha to Omega

Master gardener, Larry Averill, will discuss “Garden Soils” at the Feb. 25 meeting of Gardening ... From Alpha to Omega. This is an important part of any garden whether it be in containers or in soil beds.

Averill is an active member of the Men’s Garden Club and volunteers at Garvan Gardens. If you have neighbors that have recently moved to the Village, invite them to attend. They’ll learn about the right soil mixture for Hot Springs Village gardens. Both beginner and experienced gardeners will gain important information.

Gardening ... From Alpha to Omega meets from 2 to 3:30 p.m. the fourth Thursday each month in Hoffius Hall. Meetings are open to everyone interested in gardening.

Men’s Association

Mili Lopez, administrator of Charitable Medical Clinic in Hot Springs, will speak at the Feb. 18 Kirk Men’s Association meeting.

Lopez, a dynamic speaker, self-described as “hyper-active,” will describe how a small staff, along with over 800 volunteers from all walks of life, serve the medically uninsured in the Hot Springs community.

Charitable Medical Clinic is one of 27 charitable clinics in the Arkansas Association of Charitable Clinics and serves 13 counties. It is used for training for other charitable medical clinics.

On Jan. 15 Cpl. Kelly Watkins, a 25-year veteran of the Arkansas State Police who resides in the Village, gave an informative and instructive program on safe driving.

His slide show graphically demonstrated poor driving habits that result in serious accidents. Watkins warned the audience that ice is never a safe surface for driving and showed photos of out-of-control vehicles involved in accidents caused by ice on interstate overpasses. Snow can be okay, he said.

Driving too fast for road conditions and following too close are the two major causes of vehicle collisions, Watkins said.

The Men’s Association meets at 7:30 a.m. the third Friday each month in Hoffius Hall. Each month features an interesting speaker. Visitors are welcome.

New Territory by the Christian Friendship Program

An interview with Mary Wright, age 82, about her decision to relocate to Good Samaritan Campus.

— By Dotty Rector

Q: Mary, you've had somewhat of a different experience from Roberta Shock who has made plans to eventually move near family. Here you are living in an apartment at Cedar Lodge. What prompted this decision?

A: I hadn't thought much about moving to Good Sam until Mary Dean moved here. We were friends and I liked her apartment. We had to look at finances and show it to the kids. Good Sam called us with an available apartment, so we put our house on the market. We got a six-month mortgage in order to buy in.

Q. Are you satisfied with your decision?

A. I just love it here. Everything is paid for except the telephone and they take care of maintenance. They have home health available too. They are so nice and caring.

Q: What do your children think?

A: They thought it was a wonderful idea. One of my two children lives just an hour away. The other lives in Wisconsin, where I couldn't stand the weather.

Q: Did you consider other alternatives?

A: No. We would never go back to our home state of Minnesota. We couldn't afford to, for one thing. We felt we were moving in with friends.

Q: What values are important to you?

A: A Christian facility. Throughout my life, I always felt that God was with me.

Q: What advice would you give to others about their planning?

A: Don't delay. Write down what you have in mind. You can change it. Get your mind set that you're going to have to go sometime, so start writing things down as to what you might want to do. I told my kids, "I'm not being negative, but I have these ideas and I wrote them down." When Jack died all I had to do is pull out the packet and give it to Bill Bailey. People say "I don't want to think about that." Okay, but it makes it so much easier. My parents had everything ready so there was nothing for me to do. I'm the kind of a person who wants things in order.

Your Mission Dollars

Kirk members showed their support to The Potter's Clay Ministries when Mission Committee moderator, Dottie Isaacson, presented them with a $5,000 check for 2009.

Since 1984, Potter's Clay, at 1031 Malvern Ave. in Hot Springs, has ministered to women and children in crisis. There are 36 such shelters in Arkansas.

In 1985, Liz Brakebill and her husband, David, came to Hot Springs as executive directors. The shelter operates on a $200,000 budget and provides nearly 18,000 shelter nights for people in crisis.

Clients range from victims of incest; a kidnapped child transported from another state; mother and children evicted from their home; battered women sent from the hospital; and drug addicted women given the choice by a judge of jail or rehabilitation.

Residents live in apartment settings where they cook their meals, clean, do their laundry, and care for their children while participating in a schedule including a designed 12-Step process as well as an 8-step Beatitudes program.

Typically, residents stay from six to nine months, even up to a year and often return for support and counseling.

Many of these women come from deep, dark places, but with help from the Brakebill's, a caring community and many volunteers, they have an opportunity to remold their lives.

There are about 50 Potter's Clay Auxiliary members. Kirk members Joan Maxwell, Dottie Isaacson, Dotty Rector, Bebe Anderson, Dottie Montgomery, Della Reimers, Marilyn Olson and Joyce Hayek volunteer at Potter's Clay Thrift Shop and sell tickets for a variety of money raising events like the Annual Style Show Luncheon.

Bradleys to return home soon

Before Christmas, Toni moved from NHC Place, the rehabilitation center in Franklin, Tenn., to their daughter Sara's home. Robin and I visited with them on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 20.

Recently, I talked with Larry by phone to get an update on how he and Toni were progressing. Both are receiving outpatient therapy at NHC Place from our daughter Sharon, who is still their physical therapist.

Larry and Toni Bradley

Larry says she is working them hard! He has graduated to using a cane instead of a walker. Toni is still unable to stand, but she is making progress in her mobility.

They have bought a new car, and Toni is able to move from her wheelchair into the car much easier than into Sara's Highlander. Larry hopes to be driving soon.

Their plans are to move back to their home in Hot Springs near the end of February. Renovations are now being done on their house to make it wheelchair-accessible, and Sara will come with them to help with daily tasks.

If all goes well, Larry hopes to return to his work at the Kirk on March 1. What a happy day that will be!

Cursillo retreat in April

Have you considered attending Cursillo? Cursillo is a short course in living the Christian faith.

The objective of Cursillo is to inspire, challenge and equip church members for Christian action in the church, home, place of work, and community.

2010 Cursillo retreats will be held April 15-18 and Oct. 14-17 at Ferncliff Camp and Conference Center near Little Rock. Participants will experience a weekend filled with short talks, music, fellowship, small group discussions and great food.

Cursillo does not aim to convert one from unbelief to belief. Cursillo provides a life-changing experience for Presbyterians who seek continued growth in their faith and commitment.

It is an experience which people enter through a three-day retreat led by lay people who have experienced Cursillo. Ordained ministers are also on staff for the retreat

Participants often discover a new and exciting relationship with Jesus Christ, and then take that new-found relationship back to their own home, work and church environments.

Applications are available on the Cursillo website (www.cursillo-arkansas.org) or by contacting the registrar at 501 760-3422 or email arpc.registrar@gmail.com.

Deliver Meals on Wheels

If you can volunteer in March to deliver Meals on Wheels in the Village, call Vianne Huff at 922-4624. There are still a few slots open.

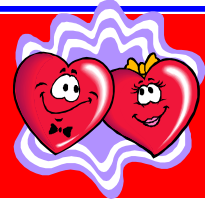

Meals on Wheels provide hot cooked meals to homebound seniors. Presbyterian Kirk in the Pines is responsible for providing volunteers in March each year.

Two people are needed for each weekday. You can volunteer as a couple or we will match you up with a partner. Substitutes are also needed on an "as needed" basis.

Ready-to-serve meals and delivery directions are picked up at McAulery Center at 9:30 am. All deliveries are in the Village.
